Welcome to Woodlands

Three-to five-bedroom modern executive homes are nestled by trees in a picturesque countryside setting.

The best in family living, at one with nature

Breathe in the fresh air, spend time with family and friends, rest and feel at peace. Woodlands is designed to provide executive homes in a peaceful woodland setting.

Woodlands offers an exquisite range of sixty-six three- to five-bedroom detached family homes. The homes sit within woodland surroundings which are being preserved to create a forest paradise where one can live in harmony with nature.

Architecturally designed exteriors with red brick finishes are complemented by feature cladding in a range of modern materials and peppered with modern high-quality doors and windows. Large feature windows allow light to flow in. Each home also boasts allocated parking for at least two vehicles, either as driveway or garage space.

All the homes offer substantial living space perfect for sophisticated entertaining or family fun. Large kitchens feature in a variety of configurations all open to either dining or family space for an open plan feel. Generous bedrooms provide usable spaces while a private ensuite bathroom is part of each master bedroom suite, supplying privacy when it's needed.

Generous gardens will allow homeowners to make the most of the natural environment while providing a private outdoor space to enjoy barbecues and summer celebrations. The homes are also designed with sustainability in mind with some homes including solar panels to the roofs.

Indicative lifestyle photography

From city to country, and everything in between

Located in Barrow Gurney, a scenic village to the Southwest of Bristol, Woodlands claims access to nearby cities and towns complemented by the best in country living.

Stylish Bristol and historic Bath provide city and town lifestyle within easy reach, Bristol with its industrial expression and Bath with its Romanesque architecture and old town ambience. Both hubs provide an exciting array of dining, shopping, and culture.

The historic Ashton Park Estate with 850 acres of Woodlands and lakes, its famous deer park and its imposing Ashton Court Mansion is just five minutes away provide a beautiful location for long walks and summer picnics. To the south you will find the Mendip Hills Area of National Beauty home to the dramatic Cheddar Gorge a stunning place to breathe in the fresh air. The coastal scenery and cobbled beaches of Weston-Super-Mare and Portishead are also within easy reach.

Woodlands at Barrow, your gateway to Bristol

The city of Bristol, with its heart just 30 minutes from Woodlands, is the nerve centre of England's Southwest; a vibrant city to explore.

Bristol's maritime and industrial heritage give the city an atmosphere that is truly unique. The port that once sat at the centre of the city now houses trendy restaurants, boutique shops and high street staples as well as art installations, galleries and the M Shed, home to the museum about all things Bristol. There is something new around every corner. You may stumble across one of Banksy's incredible hometown pieces of street art, find yourself in one of Bristol's beautiful parks or gardens such as the University of Bristol Botanical Garden, follow the laughter from Bristol's Comedy Festival or discover one of Bristol's many events, from the Bristol Harbour Festival through to art events and more.

Bristol provides a wealth of shopping experiences with all tastes catered for. The modern shopping centres of Broadmead and Cabot Circus provide the high street's most stylish selection of outlets from Zara, Next, Urban Outfitters and Monki amongst many others. The Mall at Cribbs Causeway is the Southwest's largest shopping centre, and as well as housing a plethora of shops also hosts some of Bristol's most trendy events including Bristol Fashion Week. In stark contrast are the independent street markets that take place throughout Bristol including the popular Harbourside Street Food Market, the Tobacco Factory market with its mix of food and art and the contemporary St Nicholas Market.

The city of Bristol might be renamed the city of culinary delights. A foodie's dream location, the city offers a wealth of dining opportunities including three Michelin starred restaurants. Whether it's afternoon tea at Thornbury Castle, brunch at Klosterhaus or Boca Bar or street food from Chilli Daddy there is sure to be an option to suit any palate. Or why not enjoy some of the local pubs and bars where you can sample locally made beer or some famous Southwest cider or Scrumpy.

So well connected

Sitting at the heart of England's sprawling South, Woodlands provides exceptional access from Devon to London and throughout South Wales.

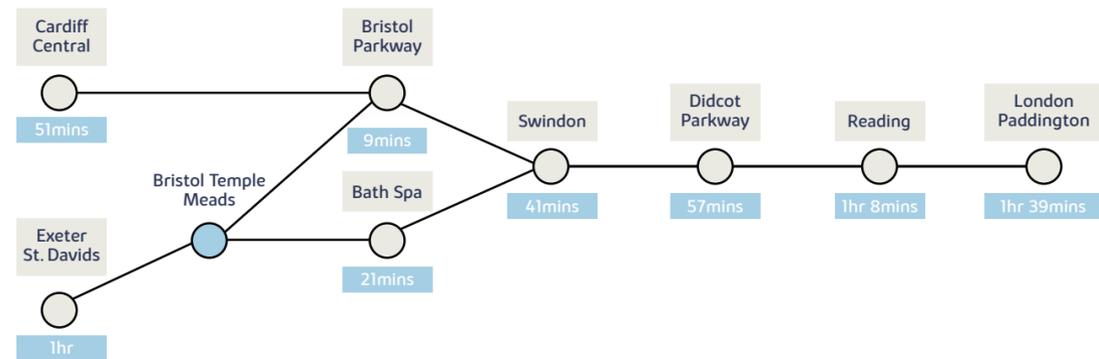

Sitting just 20 minutes from Bristol's well connected Temple Meads Train Station, Woodlands is blessed with links to the excitement of Central London and charming Bath Spa to the East, Wales' vibrant capital Cardiff to the West and attractive historical Exeter to the South. Quick links to the South's major M4 and M5 motorways in around 30 minutes mean that the entire of South England and Wales is yours to explore; from the quintessentially English beaches that speckle the coastline through to the quaint villages that sit throughout the South.

Bristol Airport is just a 8-minute drive from Woodlands, providing connections throughout the UK, Europe, Africa and even as far as Orlando, USA. From Bristol airport you can access many of Europe's most popular holiday destinations making the travel for a weekend trip to Barcelona or a beach holiday in Rhodes a hassle-free experience.
